My Story

In 2019, I was not in the greatest of health suffering from TMJ (a chronic, painful jaw condition) and Asthma (I had to use an inhaler especially during the hayfever season and when I would get a cold). In addition to my health, my weight gain was creeping up on me, as I wasn't eating a very healthy diet as I craved junk food!!! I know that something had to be done about it, otherwise it would really get out of control and I really wanted to be healthy, slimmer, and well.

My friend told me about some certified organic products that she was taking and seeing amazing results from. I did wonder how they could be different from other products that I had tried before (and in all honesty, had not made much of a difference!) but as they were 100% natural, I was willing to try anything that would help.

The first product I took was proteinmax, followed by superfoods plus and to cut a long story short: -

- My cravings vanished.
- I lost 3 stone in just over a year.
- My diet was much healthier.
- My health improved massively.

And the journey continues.....

My Mission

I want others to experience a transformation in their life.

Whether this is done by me recommending amazing certified organic products, mentoring others in my business, or just by sharing inspiration through motivational posts.... I'm here to offer my help and support!
